

IEC DESIGNER'S RUNWAY

Since IEC has been successfully organizing Designers runway where all the graduating students showcase their collections. It is the rational combination of glamour and creativity of the graduating students and is one of the most awaited events of the K-town where not only the designers but also prominent figures of the industry such as makeup artists, hair stylists and renowned Nepali artists and models showcase their talents. It is primarily a university assignment where the event is managed and showcased by the graduating students but is as grand as any other fashion shows.

Like every year, this year on March 19, 2019, 52 graduating designers from IEC College of Art and Fashion had participated with their summer and winter collection which were designed as per the demand of all the category of society. The program was Officially Choreographed by Mr. Prashant Tamrakar; with Ms. Sanam Prajapati as the make-up artist. IEC Designer's Runway 8 presented the rich collection of 14 sequences each with the unique themes and designs of the designers. The collections were presented by many popular professional models with the likes of Asmi Shrestha (Miss. Nepal 2016), Nikita Chandak (Miss. Nepal 2017) Aditi Adhikari (Winner of Model Hunt 2018 Season 4), Diggpal Karki (Mister Model of the World 2018) who are the well-known and top models of Nepal, as showstoppers of the fashion show.

The show was a grand success where many cooperate and renowned figures of Nepal attended and appreciated the show. It also had a rich representation of media from different media houses for coverage of the grand show.

With 8 years of excellent performance and the grand success of IEC Designer's Runway this year IEC is on the run of organizing the 9th IEC Designers Runway with 34 new graduating students. The most awaited show of the town is soon to be organized once again to add new taste of fashion and new trend for the industry.
