Nepal College of Travel & Tourism Management (NCTTM) in collaboration with International School of Tourism & Hotel Management (IST) is affiliated to Tribhuvan University (TU) and offering Bachelors Program in Hotel Management and Tourism Management, BHM and BTM. In addition, the college also offers Masters in Travel and Tourism Management (MTTM). NCTTM is the first college in Nepal that is offering academic degree in travel and tourism since last 24 years.

IST College is a leading college in hospitality education in affiliation with Salzburg University of Applied Sciences, Austria, since last 20 years. IST has established strong network with many academic institutions and corporate sectors in Nepal and in abroad. It has received QAA from University Grants Commission.

Both NCTTM and IST College have agreed to implement a quality management system under joint management and ownership which will ensure the quality of students as per international standard.

The team of NCTTM and IST are always committed to provide a conducive environment for learners as it will nurture and develop young minds into capable and highly motivated human resources - which is the need of the industry. The faculties are always working towards creating an opportunity for the students to capitalize their full potential, bringing the best out of them and to prepare them not only to face the challenges in life but also to excel in any sector. Hard work, perseverance, dedication and discipline are the mantras that are being instilled to the students in the regular manner.

In addition, Certified Hospitality Professional degree from Tourism School Salzburg is also provided. This degree entails soft skills and industrial related skills which is essential to forge ahead in the industry.
